Oklahoma Court Grants Summary Judgment to Insurer

Derrick DeWitt

Ryan Dean

Attorneys Derrick DeWitt and Ryan Dean won Summary Judgment on behalf of their national insurance company client in a bad faith and breach of contract action filed in Oklahoma state court. The plaintiff claimed the insurance company, through an independent agent, breached the contract by failing to provide coverage for a loss. The plaintiff further alleged bad faith in the handling of the claim and fraud, and the plaintiff sought punitive damages too. After extensive briefing and argument, the District Court for the State of

Oklahoma granted
Summary Judgment to the insurer.

The issue of attorney fees for the insurer is the only remaining issue.
